

Within the framework of the Four-Party Agreement between the Cracow University of Economics, the University of Kiev, The University of Kragujevac and the University of Messina, the Department of economics, business, environmental and quantitative methods and the Department of legal sciences and history of institutions, will host in Messina a Conference on the topic “Enterprises in hardship: economic, managerial and juridical perspectives”. The conference will be held from 24 to 26 September 2014 in the main campus of the University of Messina.

The University of Messina was founded in 1548 by Ignatius of Loyola, and became the model for hundreds of Jesuit colleges. It has an old cultural and educational tradition, dating back to the end of 13th century when a school of law was founded. Today UniME consists in 21 Departments covering the widest range of disciplines : Economics, Education, Engineering, Humanities, Law, Sciences, Medicine and Surgery, Pharmacy, Political Sciences, Statistics and Veterinary Medicine. UniMe Departments are located in four main sites: “G. Martino” – University Hospital in the southern part of the Town, Central buildings in Messina City centre while “Annunziata” campus and “Papardo” campus are located in the northern area of the Town overlooking the famous Strait of Messina and three natural reserves.
